MORI DocID: 201531 APPROVED FOR RELEASE DATE: JUN 1 1 1998 The National Intelligence Published by the Director of Con real Intelligence, for Ham of Pr incipals Only Copy No. 1.11 THE SDAY AUGUST 10, 1976 TOP SECRET 101

1

505 (10, 1976) THE MATRICIA INTERFRED AND Y Chile: Displeasure with Andean Pact Chile may withdraw from the Andean Pact, a group of six South American countries formed to forcer trade and some cause of the profit remittance level would benefit Part countries but consider the amendment necessary to give the amendment necessary to give members time for joint individual development programs while protecting their economies from competition abroad and among themselves. Chile has until August JO, when the Pact. Commission reconvens, to reconsider its position on the amendment. Memiers from all the Pact countries accept Chile will meet in Lima on August 16. They protrately will agree to Chiless requests for creimen in the ponfit remittance to keep Chile in the Pact, but they are unlikely to give ground on the amendment. devicement.

Chile opposes an amondment that would postpose for two years implementation of new zeriffs and industrial devicements of programs. Lest week, Chile referred to sign the ownershound and send it will reopes discussions only if other tract members agree to prefer prefrictions on focusion investments. foreign investment

; :

According to the Chileana, the Pact's forciga Investment code, which limits forciga investment code, which limits forciga equity in an amterprise to 49 percent and profit remultance as 14 percent, is an orbitable to inomic development, The Chileans further awaret that the delay at uniformities consensate attention attention and uniformities consensate attention. an implementing common external tariff and internal tariff productions maintains high consumer prices.

As long as the five remain in executial previous on the time and extent of im-plementation of Posting and extent of im-plementation of Post agreements, Chile is in a prior published to himse further con-cessions, (U)